April 27th is the last day to nominate your favorite volunteer!

Nomination deadline is April 27, 2012!

Now is the chance to nominate your favorite volunteer for everything they did for Special Olympics during 2011. There are several different categories to choose from. The winner in each category will be invited to the 2012 Special Olympics Northern California Summer Games at UC Davis and presented with their award (housing provided).

Each person nominated will receive a personalized letter from the President and CEO of Special Olympics Northern California recognizing them for their contribution to benefit our Special Olympics athletes.

The deadline for nominations is April 27, 2012.
